NUMBER 33

SHAPE - MAKER CLOTHES

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

The Shape-maker model is a new model in suits; for young men particularly. The trousers keep in place without suspenders or even without a belt. The wearer has to stand and walk erect; it helps develop the figure; it's a shape-maker.

Hart-Schaffner & Marx have designed this new model; it's the best thing done in clothes making for twenty years.

We want you to see it; you want the sort of figure it gives a man. Men of any age can wear it.

We have the Blues, Grays, Browns and Tans in the Shape-maker, and other good models at $18, $20, $22.50, $25

OTHER SUITS—

$10, $12.50, $15, $16.50, $18

Our Garment Section is the Center of Attraction.

Business hums in our garment section. The brisk selling that is under way strongly attests the superior styles and better value of our new Fall showing.

Among the suits, the beautiful and complete Printzess line is especially favored. And deservedly so, for not only are Printzess styles the recognized standard, but the beautiful all-wool material from which these garments are made, their thorough and artistic tailoring and their exact custom fit entitles them to the preference of the discriminating woman.

An improved feature which makes Printzess Fall Garments even greater value than heretofore is the new Printzess Plio Canvas, an exclusive shape-retaining fabric which insures the permanent shape of the garment until worn out—and all Printzess garments are guaranteed to give two full seasons of satisfactory wear.

Yet, with all these advantages Printzess Suits are priced the same as ordinary—$16.50, $18, $20, $22.50 and $25.

Taylor-Price Wedding.

Thursday evening at 6 o'clock the words uniting the lives and destinies of Miss Lacey Price of Brunswick and Mr. A. T. Taylor of Coalings, Cal., will be spoken by Rev. R. H. Cooper at the Methodist church in Brunswick. The attendants will be Miss Irene Allin, maid of honor and Mr. W. R. King of Bristol, Tenn., best man. Messrs. Will Magruder, Ira Smutz, J. M. Barker and Will Herring will act as ushers.

The church is a bower of flowers and ferns and the beautiful ring ceremony will be used. Mrs. Dora Kinkhorst Strub will render the wedding march with her customary skill. Miss Adele Kinkhorst, who is well known as a sweet songstress, will sing two beautiful wedding solos.

Miss Price will be married in traveling costume, the happy couple leaving immediately on No. 9 for Coalings, Cal., where they will make their future home. They will be accompanied by the brides mother, Mrs. Emma Price, who will reside with them.

The bride is a charming young lady of many splendid qualities of heart and mind, who has lately been a teacher of languages at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo. The bridegroom is a man of worth and integrity and is a prosperous hardware dealer.

Mesdames Bob Keeley of Moberly, Snider of Selma, Col., and Louis Woodward of St. Louis will be the only out of town guests.

To Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, together with their numerous friends the COURIER extends congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Humphries Convicted—A Suicide

After being out 21 hours the jury trying James Humphries, charged with the murder of James Hatcher, in the Grundy county circuit court, brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree and assessed his punishment at 20 years in the penitentiary.

Last Friday morning Humphries was found hanging by the neck in the Grundy county jail dead. He had made a noose of bedclothes and his suspenders and a handkerchief. His neck was dislocated, causing instant death. Humphries on January 14, last, shot and killed James Hatcher, claiming that he caught Hatcher stealing corn from his crib, but the theory that the state convicted him on was that he was in love with Hatcher's wife and killed him that he might marry her. Both were from prominent families in Grundy county.

A Queer Passenger.

On September 15, a man by the name of J. F. Maher jumped from a Wabash passenger train at a point about three miles east of Salisbury. The train was stopped and backed to the place where his hat was found near a pond close to the track. Section men were notified to drag the pond, but no body was found.

The next morning the train jumper was found by a farmer named L. F. Jogan, about four miles west of Salisbury. Both ankles were sprained and his face cut and bruised, but his injuries were not serious. His home is at No. 2206 24th avenue, Minneapolis. He said he was a delegate to the Coopers' convention at Kansas City and held a return ticket to Minneapolis.

When questioned as to why he jumped off the train he said he was threatened by other men. Evidently it was a case of mental aberration. He is being taken care of and will be sent home as soon as he is able to travel.—Moberly Monitor.

New Suits.

The following new suits have been filed with circuit clerk W. L. Wright for the November term of circuit court at Keytesville.

Geo. W. Wayland vs. Wabash Railroad Co. Plaintiff seeks to recover $178.70 from the defendant because of the damaged condition of a car load of apples, shipped by plaintiff over the defendants road to Lincoln, Ill., on the 29th of October 1909. Lamb & Lamb are plaintiffs attorneys.

Ella Webber by her attorneys Benecke & Benecke of Brunswick has brought suit for divorce from Charles Webber. Plaintiff states that on the 4th day of May, 1907, in the county of Carroll, state of Missouri, she was lawfully married to the defendant, that she continued to live with him as his wife from that date to the first day of June, 1910, and during all that time faithfully demeaned herself and discharged all her duties as said wife, and at all times treated defendant with kindness and affection but that defendant wholly disregarding his duties as her husband did offer her such indignities as to render her condition intolerable, to-wit: During the two years he quarrelled with her, told her that he did not care anything about her and on several occasions pushed her with much force against the wall of the room and called her a dirty one-eyed b— and other vile names, and cursed her and said he would leave her and not return. Furthermore he refused to supply her with the necessities of life, food and clothing, which made it necessary for her to hire out and work, at farm work in order to support herself, and on June 1, 1910, he left her for good, and did not give her any money at all. There were no children born to this couple.

J. B. Powell, formerly editor of the University Missourian at Columbia, Mo., was here Tuesday gathering material for his article on Chariton County which will probably appear in Saturday's St. Louis Star.

Mrs. W. E. Miller of DeWitt came down Tuesday to visit Mrs. Dr. J. T. Dewey and family, returning Wednesday.

Rev. T. F. Gray of Buckner, visited with his brother-in-law, Rev. J. A. Snarr and family Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Carrie Willett who is teaching school south of town, came up Friday evening to spend Sunday with her mother.

NOTICE—This Means YOU.

Last week we sent out a number of subscription accounts, and up to the present time have received returns from some of only about enough to pay the postage expended.

Now friends we sent these accounts to you because we are very much in need of all the money due the office in order to satisfy the obligations of the office, and to settle up the affairs of the late editor, and we earnestly request that if you received a statement that you respond promptly by remitting the amount due. The law compels me, as executrix of the estate, to settle all matters as promptly as possible and I will be compelled to place all accounts in the hands of a collector if same are not adjusted promptly.

Very Respectfully
MRS. C. P. VANDIVER,
Executrix.

Mrs. H. T. Johnson, who has been living in Keytesville for sometime past, left with her three children for Sidney, Neb., Thursday where she will join her husband with the intention of making that their future home.

Mrs. A. C. Seiser left for Newtown, Mo., Thursday, being called there by the death of her brother-in-law.

L. H. Herring and wife of Forest Green were guests of his brother, E. W. Herring and family, Wednesday.

The rain man of the north-west must have joined hands with the conversationists this year.
